

Members' code of conduct Form

Members of the Global Alliance of Eye Bank Associations (also referred to as GAEBA or The Association, The Global Alliance) are expected to adhere to the Rules of Incorporation of The Association.

Member organizations must support, and conduct their operations and practice, in accordance with the standards and values outlined in The Barcelona Principles and the WHO's WHA Guiding Principles for Cells, Tissues and Organs (WHA63.22), and promote these objectives and principles.

As a member of GAEBA, _____ will:

- adhere to the Rules of Incorporation of The Association
- respect the humanity and generosity of ocular tissue donors and their families, and honour their intent and wishes
- promote national laws, regulations and policies that increase access to ocular tissue to all members of our community
- operate in an open and collegiate manner across the eye bank, tissue and eye care sectors
- act with honesty and in good faith
- treat others with respect and dignity
- value diversity of contribution across the membership
- recognise and avoid conflicts of interest
- never take improper advantage of their membership position
- not make improper use of information obtained
- always acknowledge and respect decisions of GAEBA and its membership
- not disclose confidential information without prior appropriate consent
- not act in a way that would bring disrepute to GAEBA and the sector.

I, _____ on behalf of the executive and/or governing body of the above organization confirm that our organization agrees to adhere to the GAEBA code of conduct.
